b. Why were the king and the other servants shocked by the forgiven servant's treatment of the man who owed him a small amount of money?

c. What were the consequences of the servant's lack of mercy?

d. What lesson did Jesus want us to learn from this parable?

SESSION 22

GOD IS MERCIFUL (B)

Life Application

WRITE IT ON YOUR HEART

Memorize the following statement and verses. As you encounter situations during this week where you need to remember that God is merciful, claim these promises by faith.

- Because God is merciful, He forgives me of my sins when I sincerely confess them.
- Daniel 9:9—“The Lord our God is merciful and forgiving, even though we have rebelled against Him.”
- Hebrews 4:16—“Let us come boldly to the throne of our gracious God. There we will receive His mercy, and we will find grace to help us when we need it.”

EXALT YOUR GOD

Meditate on the following verses and praise God for the specific ways He has shown mercy in your life.

God is so rich in mercy, and He loved us so very much, that even while we were dead because of our sins, He gave us life when He raised Christ from the dead (Ephesians 2:4).

Where is another God like You, who pardons the sins of the survivors among His people? You cannot stay angry with Your people forever, because You delight in showing mercy (Micah 7:18).

REFLECT HIS IMAGE

The Word of God states in Micah 6:8, “O people, the LORD has already told you what is good, and this is what He requires: to do what is right, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God.” Do you love mercy? Are you quick to forgive? What are some of the ways you extend mercy?

Spend some time with our compassionate God and ask Him to mold you into His image to become a lover of mercy.

COUNT ON GOD

Are you, or is someone close to you, in desperate need of God's mercy? No matter what you have done—large or small—God's mercy is sufficient. Go to Him and repent. Confess your sin, turn from it, and open your heart to His love and forgiveness. Your God of mercy will heal and restore you.

OBEY GOD

Are you having difficulty forgiving someone who has wronged you? Reread the parable of the ungrateful servant (Matthew 18:21–35). God has forgiven every sin you ever committed and any sin you will commit in the future; therefore, we must also forgive everyone who wrongs us. Obey God by going to the person who wronged you today. Forgive him and experience the joy of showing mercy.

SHARE HIS MAJESTY

What insight from this lesson meant a lot to you?

Tell a friend. If he does not know Jesus as his Savior, share the love and forgiveness offered by our gracious Lord. If he is a believer, remind him that his heavenly Father is “full of compassion and mercy” (James 5:11, NIV).
